Exciting news from 323 Interactive!

On November 1, 2006 323 Interactive was acquired by a full service technology company called VRoooom Technology. VRoooom Technology has been in the web design, internet marketing, hosting, data storage, and computer networking business for eight years. We have well-trained staff members in each of these departments. Your hosting environment will not be changed since the servers will remain in Atlanta. This acquisition brings stability and additional staff to support all of your technology needs as we build internet-based business solutions.
